This works out to $56.25 for every shipment. We will offer a 5% discount on the paying the entire club subscription up front with paypal or credit card.

OR

- Pick and choose the months you sign up for and pay the price listed next to each club shipment above. We will bill every other month (the month prior to the club shipment) via paypal; however, you are also free to pay via credit card or check/money order. You can still commit to signing up for the entire club subscription this way; however, don't have to pay the entire amount up front with our easy pay every-other-month options.

Cancellations:

Please note that if you sign up for a club subscription or an individual kit, we do not accept cancellations for these kits. Many of the club extras are ordered several months in advance and we order for the number of members signed up. We would love to keep offering the pay-by-the-month option.

How to sign up:

You can sign up by clicking on the attached LINK for the club. Please note that space for each kit is limited, so once a kit is full we will remove that kit from the registration form.
